

Teresa Bramlette Reeves
Biography

I was born in Athens, Georgia and received a BFA in drawing and painting from the University of Georgia, a MFA from Virginia Commonwealth University, and a PhD in art history from the University of Georgia.

Prior to teaching at Georgia State University (2001-11), I worked as the Curatorial Assistant at the following New York City institutions: The New Museum of Contemporary Art, the Guggenheim Museum and Artists Space. I was formerly the Assistant Director of The New York Kunsthal and the Gallery Director and Curator for the Atlanta Contemporary Art Center. I serve the Director of Curatorial Affairs at the Zuckerman Museum of Art. I completed a Fulbright US Scholar residency in 2016/17, working with the Irish Museum of Modern Art in Dublin.

I am also a practicing artist and had a solo show at Whitespace Gallery in May 2017. I was formerly represented by Sandler Hudson Gallery in Atlanta, Althea Viafora Gallery and Information Gallery in NYC, and ID Galerie in Düsseldorf, Germany. In addition to solo shows at these commercial venues, I have also presented solo projects at the Jersey City Museum, P.S. 1 Museum and White Columns as well as being included in numerous group shows in Atlanta, New Orleans, NYC, Cologne and Paris. I was awarded a Pollock-Krasner Grant, and Fellowship Residencies at the MacDowell Colony, Cite International des Arts (Paris), Hambidge Center, and the P.S. 1 National Studio Program.
